

It is hereby requested that the FCC not interfere with the State of New Jersey's "Do Not Call" program. If anything , the FCC might want to consider bringing their "Do Not Call" program up to the standards of New Jersey. I'm sure that citizens in other states would welcome the change.